Panacea Announces ThinManager Platinum Partner Status

Panacea Joins Elite List Representing the Highest Possible ThinManager Partner Status

Montgomeryville, PA (October 16, 2018) – Panacea Technologies announces being named as an ACP/Rockwell Automation ThinManager Platinum Partner. Platinum Partner status represents the highest possible partner status for the ThinManager platform and certifies Panacea’s ability to deploy, configure, and support ThinManager and its highest level of functionality.

There are less than ten ThinManager Platinum Partners named globally, and Panacea is excited about the level of confidence this status instills with our clients.

ThinManager is an Industry leading thin client platform allowing for complex virtual SCADA deployments and mobile HMIs. For more information on ThinManager and Panacea’s reference project visit <http://bit.ly/2NqO5ZE>.
