Component Viewer for DeltaV

Component Viewer for DeltaV allows the user to graphically view a DeltaV Export File (FHX File) on any computer. The user can export control libraries, areas, units, etc., to an FHX file and graphically view the configuration on any computer that is running Component Viewer for DeltaV. Component Viewer for DeltaV is similar to DeltaV Explorer, but designed to be easier to use by providing more information in a single tool. Component Viewer for DeltaV is a read only application providing the security that FHX files cannot be altered while they are being reviewed.

Benefits of using Component Viewer for DeltaV

- Designed to be quick and easy to use
- Designed to provide more information quicker than DeltaV Explorer.
- Designed to be run on the users PC so a DeltaV license is required.
- Designed to allow more users access to a copy of the code without needing a DeltaV station for design and review of the automation system.
